Senior Volunteer Hall of Fame

For 30 years, the Senior Volunteer Hall of Fame has recognized and celebrated Chesterfield citizens age 65 and older who have rendered unusual or outstanding services to their community. The goal has been to recognize and honor the outstanding achievements of these individuals.

The Senior Volunteer Hall of Fame was conceived and founded by Dorothy Charles, who worked passionately to develop and sustain it. It was established in 1982 through her work with the Senior Council and the Board of Supervisors. It is a program that has grown throughout the years and is well respected in the county. The nominees have ranged in age from 65 to 95 years of age.

This year, there are 15 nominations for the Senior Volunteer Hall of Fame. These individuals have donated more than 87,291 hours to the community since they reached the age of 65. Out of this group, three are being inducted in the Hall of Fame.
